Resurrection on Sliabh na mBan

At morning tide upon the hill of Sliabh na mBan

I saw the dead Christ glorified.

His body like the risen Sun, was all too bright to look upon.

The blue air burned around him.

In his side and hands and feet there shone, thro' stabs and gashes gaping wide,

The golden glory of his blood.

The gillies stood upon his right hand;

At his feet, the fishes - Peter, James and John,

- Knelt worshipping,

With outstretched arms and eyes to heaven turned.

And Maria - his mother sweet and partner of his Mysteries - and Magdalene and Salome,

Came through the doorway of the day behind him, weeping.

Then a cloud came o'er my senses,
 and I saw and heard no more.

Joseph Campbell

Newly Baptised!

We welcome into our Catholic Christian Community: Remaya Harty. We remember you in our prayers & we wish God's blessing on you & your families at this very special time & always!

Safeguarding Month

The 2022 parish safeguarding audits showed that children's ministry in parishes is slowly returning following the pandemic. We actively encourage children to be involved in the Church and we have developed procedures, policies and forms to assist parishes in this Ministry. For further guidance or assistance with restarting children's ministry, Cleo Yates, Diocesan Director of Safeguarding will be more than happy to assist and can be contacted via the Diocesan Office.

The Franciscan Brothers will be attending all Masses in the Parish on weekend 27th & 28th May. They are a small congregation of brothers they are most dependant on the prayers and generosity of others to keep many of their works going in rural Kenya and Uganda. Their main work is in the area of education, sustainable agriculture and rural development. In the last two years because of Covid 19 much of their resources have gone into helping people just stay alive. Really just providing food, medicines and dealing with other hardship cases.

Thank you for your support.

Our voices ascending,
In harmony blending,
Oh! Thus may our hearts turn
Dear Mother, to thee;
Oh! Thus shall we prove thee
How truly we love thee,
How dark without Mary Life's journey would be.

O Mary! we crown thee with blossoms today,
Queen of the Angels, Queen of the May,
O Mary! we crown thee with blossoms today,
Queen of the Angels, Queen of the May.
