Sea Waves

The throaty waves roll in and out again
Till surfless silence breathes a quick amen
The breathless ebb once more in fury flowing
Remind us of our coming and our going.
The sea-waves never ever find a home
Like we poor creatures exiled and alone
Our lives like sea-waves storm and cyclone driven
Await the calm and peace of heaven.
- Sean Lowe, Ennis 2003.

Roscrea Tidy Towns

Weeding and maintenance of our beds and floral displays will be the order of the day for the next few weeks, to keep them looking their best. Last Saturday, we laid a layer of bark mulch on the revamped bed on the Birr Road. Before the mulch was put on the ground, it was first covered with a layer of old newspapers and cardboard. This was wet to keep it in place before the mulch was put on it. This trick is a great way to use up the old newspapers/cardboard. This keeps the weeds from popping up through the mulch for a long time. It also biodegrades in time.

Once again, we would like to remind those who got hanging baskets to keep them watered regularly or they will not look their best and may fail totally.

We were once again very happy to have helpful hands from Corville House and Racket Hall last Saturday. Their input makes it easier on all of us; we get more work done because we have a good number of volunteers.

Reflection

On my bad days, I seek you.
On my good days, I thank you.
On my great days, I praise you.
But every day, I need you.
Thank you, God, for always being here for me.

Prayer of Gratitude from Primary School to Secondary

Thank You God for this joyful day,
A day of celebration and reflection.
We have grateful hearts -
Grateful for the friendships made,
The lessons learned and challenges overcome.

As we honour the journey of our young students,
We thank You for the guidance of their teachers,
The love of their families,
And the support of their school communities.
May their futures be filled with pride, joy and hope.
Help us all to remember the importance of kindness, curiosity and courage.
As our young people step into the next chapter of their learning be with them in every aspect of life. Amen

The Loving God

"I believe in the God of life who loves me and who wants to see me alive and well.
I believe in the God, who always forgives me and opens to me a future full of life and hope.
I believe in the God who is with me every second of my life to help me, heal me, console me, strengthen me, suffer with me and be my best friend.
I believe in the God who knows only love, compassion and kindness; who is "a lover of life" and who begs me to "choose life".
In this faith I find joy and peace in the present life and hope for the life to come". Amen

- F. Fullenbach.
