Church of St. James, Cashel, Connemara, Co. Galway

He built a church beside the road, in the bushes above the sea, for the poor plain folk o' the twisted lands, an' poorer and plainer he, then the poorest and plainer he, then the poorest neighbour speaking his name, with a blessin', night an' day, for all that he was, an' all that he did,
In the Masters name an' way.

An' he who built the grey-stone church, in the bushes above the sea, is gone long years to the Masters land, but somehow it seems to me, he's watchin out an' over the stars, Thro' the length o' the earthly day, an' helping the folk o' the twisted lands, whenever they kneel to pray.

A Voyage Prayer

Lord, protect me when I am afloat and when ashore.

Steer the ship of my life to your quiet harbour.

Give me the strength and courage to choose the right course, even when the sea is rough and the waves are high.

May I always know that with your protection I will endure hardship and find comfort and peace.

Keep my family and friends safe in your love and may they be there to welcome me when I return.

AMEN.
