Céad Míle Fáilte

We are now following on from our Diocesan Plan and in preparation for the time when we won't have priest/s for all the masses, funerals and services. We introduce this Monday at 10am our Lay-Led Liturgy on Monday in St. Cronan's.

Many parishes in Ireland for many years have prayerful Lay-Led Liturgies. We will have the Daily Readings from the Bible read: the Word of God, Prayers of the Faithful (very important) and Holy Communion, the Body of Christ. By Parishioners: the loyal Faithful being present (as at the Eucharist) we help, heal and bless each other by prayer and presence.

As we are aware Jesus Christ is totally present in the Community gathering for Prayer, in the Word of God and Holy Communion.

Our parish gives many opportunities for Devotional prayer. We thank all involved. Our Lay-Led Liturgies from now on will be very important prayerful liturgies as we look forward in faith and hope as we live in the present reality.

Fr's John, Antun and Tom.

Newly Baptised!

We welcome into our Catholic Christian Community: Lola Conlon & Luca Conlon. We remember you in our prayers & we wish God's blessing on you & your families at this very special time & always!

SERVERS: All Servers from Third, Fourth, Fifth and Six Classes please return your Commitment FORMS to School this week.

READERS: Thank You for your commitment. We need 2 Readers at our weekend masses. Please Volunteer for this very important Church Ministry.

COLLECTORS: Needed for weekend Masses in St.
 Cronan's.

School Creed

This is our school, let peace dwell here,

let the room be full of contentment.

Let love abide here. Love of one another.

Love of all humanity, Love of life itself, and love of God.

Let us remember: that as many hands build a house,

So many hearts make a school.

Note: Please do not leave books, pamphlets, papers of any kind in our churches. Thank You.
