In November we Remember...

I don't think then of all the misery, but of the beauty that still remains.
This is one of the things that Mother and I are so entirely different about. Her counsel when one feels melancholy is "Think of all the misery in the world and be thankful that you are not sharing in it!" My advice is: "Go outside, to the fields, enjoy nature and the sunshine, go out and try to recapture happiness in yourself and in God. Think of all the beauty that's still left in and around you and be happy!"
Anne Frank.

Welcome to November

November comes and November goes,
with the last red berries and the first white snows.
With night coming early, and dawn coming late,
and ice in the bucket and frost by the gate.

The fires burn and the kettles sing,
and earth sinks to rest until next Spring.
