Bed in Summer

In winter I get up at night and dress by yellow candle-light.

In summer, quite the other way, I have to go to bed by day.

I have to go to bed and see the birds still hopping on the tree,

Or hear the grown-up people's feet still going past me in the street.

And does it not seem hard to you, when all the sky is clear and blue, and I should like so much to play, to have to go to bed by day?

- Robert Louis Stevenson

Summer

Summer time is finally here; school is out and fishing time near. Barefooted boys and fishing poles, down to the creek, to the ole swimming hole.

Running through the woods, along the river bank, that old boat they used went and sank.

A can of worms, a hook and line, looking for a fishing pole, if they can find two good friends who share their fun, they run and jump and chase the sun.

Running here, and running there.

Not any worries, not a care, but too soon, it must all end for these two that were good friends.

Summer comes and summer moves on.

A few summers in your life, then you're grown.

But there are days we can recall When we were friends, we had it all. – Doug Beggs

Our Lady, Mary, Health of the Sick

Novena Prayer

Our Lady, Health of the Sick,
I look to you for the comfort of a mother's love,
I pray to you on behalf of those who are suffering and for my own healing needs.

Mary, your love strengthens me
and brings me peace.

Our Lady of Mercy, Health of the Sick, embrace all who are emotionally and physically ill that they may return to good health under your tender care. And please intercede for my very urgent needs, most especially ...

Mary, your love strengthens me and brings me peace.

Our Lady, Health of the Sick, pray for us. Amen.

Talk on WW1 Chaplain Fr Willie Doyle

On Thursday 21st May at 7.30pm in the Roscrea Courthouse there will be a talk on the life and holiness of the Jesuit priest, Fr. Willie Doyle. Fr. Wilie was an army chaplain who served heroically on the frontline during the First World War. Before is time as army chaplain he preached retreats in Ireland, including in the Sacred Heart Convent, Roscrea. The talk will be given by Dr. Patrick Kenny and will include blessing with a few of Fr. Willie's relics. The Holy Mass will also be offered during the evening. Refreshments will be served afterwards. All welcome.

A Prayer to Our Lady

In danger, in distress, in uncertainty, -- think of Mary, call upon Mary. She never leaves your lips.

She never departs from your heart; and so that you may obtain the help of her prayers, never forget the example of her life.

If you follow her you cannot falter;

If you pray to her, you cannot despair;

If you think of her, you cannot err.

If she sustains you, you will not stumble;

If she protects you, you have nothing to fear;

If she guides you, you will never grow weary;

If she shows you favour, you will attain your goal. Amen
